A SUPPLY OF GOOD FEED

It is essential if you want to get good work from your horses, good milk from your cows. You can't keep a furnace going on poor fuel—no more can you keep the fire of life going right on meagre or poor quality of food. There's no secret about the place to buy it—

The above compliment was paid us by a satisfied customer; hence, don't you believe there must be others of the same opinion? In a town of less than four hundred people, with fierce competition on all sides, we have in eight years built up a Banking business of over

True Standards of Life.

The Measure of a Man is What He Is, Not What He Has.

It takes so long to learn how to live; so long to get even a glimmering of what life is for; and what we ought to do with ours. We are so prone to live in the future, to fret ourselves about it. We are so busy yearning for the joys we imagine other people have and worrying about the trouble we imagine we are having, that we make the present—the one thing we are sure of—an endless regret.

And of all the follies, the limit is to permit some one else to make our standards for us. Haven't we intelligence? Can't we think for ourselves? To want things we don't really care for, just because someone else has them, wouldn't understand if we and did have them! To struggle and strain to make a show, when all the neighbors know it is only a show and would respect us a heap more if we had the courage to be ourselves! Dead! Death's standards ought to be life's standards. Death does not ask how big a house we hail from, nor how many university degrees we have won, nor what is our bank account. Nor what we have, nor what we know, but what we are. And that's our measure of everybody but ourselves. —The Delineator.

Don't lay in your winter supplies until you visit the Big Sample Sale, Monday and Tuesday, October 3 and 4. Sale will be conducted in the McKee Bank by ladies of the P. & C. Infirmary. A full description will be published later.

Suppose You Try It.

We are indebted to a Missouri paper for the following method of gaining a welcome entrance into a newspaper office:

"Advance to the inner door and give three raps. The devil will attend to the alarm. You will give your name, post-office address and number of years you owe for the paper. You will be admitted into the sanctum and will advance to the center of the room where you will address the editor with the following counter-sign: Hold the right hand about two feet from the body, with the thumb and fingers clasping a $10 bill, which you will drop into the editor's hand saying: 'Were you waiting for me?' The editor will clasp your hand and the bill, pressing it, and will say: 'You Bet!'

An Advertising Fable.

In a certain barnyard there were two hens, one of which, when she laid an egg, cackled, because she knew when she had a good thing, and she wanted others to know it—that hen believed in advertising. And many were the breakfasts her enterprise supplied.

When the other hen laid eggs she disdained to cackle. "What's the use?" she said; "Everybody knows I Lay Eggs," and she cackled not.

One day the owner of the hens by accident discovered the nest of the Voiceless One, and it was full of eggs. But they were too old to use. And immediately he cut off the head of the hen that had refused to be "modern" and "Advertise."

Mr. Merchant, are your goods becoming "over ripe"? Try "cackling"—ADVERTISE.

Cost of Living In 1823.

That price of food were not always so high as they are now is the testimony of a little rusty volume of poems and facts compiled by Moses Grant who arrived in Cincinnati from the East in 1823 and took careful note of many things he saw, including the market. He jotted his observations down in his journal, which was later published, and this interesting bit of information was culled from its pages.

"Markets in Cincinnati are abundantly supplied with the best kinds of meats and vegetables. Beef, mutton and veal sell from 2 to 4 cents a pound, pork from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents, butter, 12 1/2 to 18 1/4 cents, cheese 6 to 8 cents and eggs 4 to 10 cents a dozen. Wheat flour cost from $1.25 to $1.75 per hundred weight, buckwheat costs the same, cornmeal 8 1/4 to 10 cents per bushel, wheat 43 to 50, corn 18 1/4 to 25 cents per bushel and oats from 12 1/2 to 18 cents. Chickens sell for 10 to 25 cents per pair, turkeys for 3 to 4 cents per pound, potatoes 25 to 37 cents and turnips 18 1/4 to 25 cents per bushel." —Midway Clipper.

What We Should Do.

We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's property means a great deal more to us than someone's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a fair price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar our own citizen makes will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.

Don't wait until your house burns to think about insurance. See Dan H. Brock.

Married. The marriage of Miss Marion Myrtle Edwards and Mr. James M. Gowan came as a surprise to their many friends. The ceremony was performed last Thursday by Dr. C. C. Marshall at the Baptist parsonage on Wood street. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Daniel Edwards, a prosperous farmer, and a well-known resident of the county. She is a native of Kentucky, and has lived in this county for many years. Her husband is a native of Kentucky, and has lived in this county for many years. They were united in marriage at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. The bride wore a beautiful white gown, and the groom wore a dark suit. They were accompanied by their parents and friends. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding feast was a most excellent one, and was enjoyed by all present. The ceremony was a most beautiful one, and was a great success.
